RIDING THE RAILS OF LIFE

Dear parishioners and visitors,

A Blessed and Happy Easter! What a great day it is for Catholics and Christians. This day can compare only to another great solemnity: Christmas. What joy it is to know the Father sent his Son into the world born of a virgin; and later to suffer, die and rise on our behalf. We want that joy and faith to remain with us until the Lord will come again.

I take this occasion to thank those parishioners who do so much for our parish families. Most of us don't know the full extent of what they do. I extend my heart-felt gratitude to you for your service and charity.

On behalf of Bishop Callahan, I wish you and your family the blessings of Easter. May they remain with you today and throughout the Easter Season which concludes on Pentecost Sunday.

Thank you and God bless you.

Msgr. Stoetzel

The intercession this week is to pray for the blessings of Easter to fill the hearts of all Catholics and Christians with joy.

DEVOTION TO THE MERCY OF GOD – ST. FAUSTINA AND POPE ST. JOHN PAUL II

The Mercy of God was central to the pontificate of St. John Paul II. To understand this, one must see his profound connection with a humble Polish nun – Sr. Faustina Kowalska.

In 1931 Jesus appeared to Sr. Faustina in a vision. She saw Him clothed in a white garment with His right hand raised in blessing. His left hand was touching His garment in the area of the heart, from which shone two large rays, one red and the other white.

Jesus said to her: "Paint an image according to the pattern you see with the signature: 'Jesus, I trust in You'. I desire that this image be venerated throughout the world.... I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My Mercy." Jesus entrusted special prayers to Sr. Faustina to share with the world, including the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

A Time of Trial

Soon the Divine Mercy devotion spread throughout Poland and beyond. But on March 6, 1959, after studying some inaccurate Italian accounts of the visions, the Vatican prohibited spreading the message and devotion. The ban lasted nearly 20 years.

A young Polish seminarian in Krakow by the name of Karol Wojtyla had in the 1940s been deeply affected by the story of Sr. Faustina and the Divine Mercy devotion. From the stone quarry in which he worked during the Nazi occupation, he could see the convent cemetery where Sr. Faustina was buried, and he would sometimes visit her grave on the way home.

Triumph of Mercy

By the 1960s, as Archbishop of Krakow, Wojtyla ordered a complete study of the life and virtues of Sr. Faustina. This concluded with such success that her Process of Beatification was begun in 1968. Finally, in April of 1978, at the request of then-Cardinal Wojtyla and many others, the Vatican lifted the ban on spreading the message and devotion. Six months later, he was elected Pope.

"The Image of My Pontificate"

Pope John Paul II remarked several times that his second encyclical, "Rich in Mercy," (Nov. 30, 1980) was profoundly influenced by insights that came through the experiences of Sr. Faustina. Then in June of 1997, he prayed at her tomb in Lagiewniki, Poland and spoke from the heart to her Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy:

"There is nothing that man needs more than Divine Mercy....And it is a message that is clear and understandable for everyone. Anyone can come here, look at this image of the merciful Jesus, His Heart radiating grace, and hear in the depths of his own soul what Blessed Faustina heard: Fear nothing; I am with you always (Diary, 586). "And if this person responds with a sincere heart: 'Jesus, I trust in

You, he will find comfort in all his anxieties and fears. ... The message of Divine Mercy has always been near and dear to me. It is as if history had inscribed it in the tragic experience of the Second World War. In those difficult years it was a particular support and an inexhaustible source of hope...which I took with me to the See of Peter and which in a sense forms the image of my Pontificate."

A Saint, a Feast Day, a Holy Death

On April 30, 2000, the Sunday after Easter, Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina Kowalska and proclaimed that this day would henceforth be celebrated throughout the world as Divine Mercy Sunday. That evening he said to a doctor associated with the canonization process, "this is the happiest day of my life."

Five years later, precisely on the eve of Divine Mercy Sunday, moments after his personal secretary, Archbishop Stanislaus Dziwisz, had finished celebrating the Vigil Mass for the Feast, Pope John Paul II died, passing from this world into the merciful embrace of Christ.
