RIDING THE RAILS OF LIFE

Dear parishioners and visitors,

On this Saturday (June 30th), the Bishop ordained two transitional deacons to be priests of the diocese: Kyle Laylan and Barry Saylor. If you recall, Fr. Laylan was living here in the summer of 2016 as he took part in the Clinical Pastoral Education at Gundersen Hospital. We extend our best wishes and prayers to them as they will serve in the diocese for years to come.

It is an occasion such as this that we are very thankful to those who have been ordained or entered the religious life. We need them and many more to serve the Lord's Church. It is truly a blessed life in which there are many blessings and rewards. Having a very good job, a lot of money and possessions doesn't guarantee happiness. A life dedicated to serving the Lord is a tremendous challenge but is very rewarding in return.

Please continue to pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Also, offer words of encouragement to show your support of the Church.

Thank you and God bless you.

Msgr. Stoetzel

The intercession this week is to pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

Eternal rest grant unto Stephen, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithfully departed, through the mercy of God, rest in eternal peace. Amen.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

...for the knowledge of God is received in Divine Silence. ~ St. John of the Cross

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOSEPH

Holy Mother Church honors the Precious Blood in the month of July and encourages us in this devotion. The traditional feast day devoted to the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ is July 1st. The Knights of St. Joseph pray that all individuals will develop a deeper devotion as they receive the Precious Blood during Holy Communion and perhaps devote time to reading about miracles attributed to the Precious Blood or pray the Chaplet of the Precious Blood.

The Knights of St. Joseph extend an invitation to everyone to join them on Friday, July 13, for an hour of Adoration at Blessed Sacrament's Adoration Chapel (130 Losey Blvd.).

YOUR FAVORITE BOOK

What are reading this summer? Something fun to have in the weekly bulletin is to have individuals, kids included, share what/who their favorite book and/or author is and why it is their favorite book and why others might be compelled to read your selection, too. Email your favorite selection and a brief description to Edward at ejones@centurytel.net.

Rochelle Dyar highly recommends Driving Miss Norma, authored by Tim Bauerschmidt.

At age 90, Miss Norma was diagnosed with uterine cancer, further advised to undergo surgery, radiation, and chemotherapy. Instead of confining herself to a hospital bed she told her doctor, "I'm ninety years old. I'm hitting the road."

With that said, Miss Norma took off on an unforgettable around-the-country journey in a 36' R.V. with her retired son Tim, his wife Ramie, and their dog Ringo. Rochelle's take away was one family's journey of saying yes to living.

Weekly Message From THE HOLY SEE POPE FRANCIS

As we are nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ, we are assimilated with Him; we receive His love within us, not to hold it back selfishly, but rather to share it with others. This logic is inscribed in the Eucharist: we receive His love within us and we share it with others. This is the Eucharistic logic.

Indeed in it we contemplate Jesus, Bread broken and offered, Blood poured out for our salvation. It is a presence which like fire sears the selfish attitudes within us, purifies us of the tendency to give only when we have received, and ignites the desire to make ourselves too, in union with Christ, bread broken and blood poured out for our brothers and sisters.

Jesus' living presence in the Eucharist is like a door, an open door between the temple and the road, between faith and history, between the city of God and the city of man.

ST. JOSEPH AS A CHILD, ADOLESCENT & ADULT

St. Jerome (347-420,) Doctor of the Church, explains the virginal relationship between Joseph and Mary: That God was born of a virgin we believe because we read it. That Mary consummated marriage after her childbirth we do not believe because we do not read it. Nor do we say this in order to condemn marriage, for virginity is itself a fruit of marriage, but because there is no license to draw rash conclusions about holy men.

For if we wish to take the mere possibility into consideration, we can contend that Joseph had several wives because Abraham and Jacob had several wives and that from these wives, the 'brethren of the Lord' were born, a fiction which most people invent with not so much pious as presumptuous audacity. You say that Mary did not remain a virgin; even more do I claim that Joseph was virginal through Mary, in order that from a virginal marriage a virginal son might be born. For if the charge of fornication does not fall on this holy man, and if it is not written that he had another wife, and if he was more of a protector than a husband of Mary, whom he was thought to have as his wife, it remains to assert that he who merited to be called the father of the Lord remained virginal with her. - St. Jerome.

The earliest saints of the Church, who would have had contact with the original twelve Apostles, were all in agreement that the mother of Jesus was a virgin both before and after the birth of Christ. Also, Church traditions fully support that Joseph, being led by the Holy Spirit, chose to offer everything about himself to God, and had made a vow of virginity early on in life. Given that he was sanctified by God, and given many special graces, this doesn't seem so strange.

Venerable Maria de Agreda: From his twelfth year he had made and kept the vow of chastity... and was known for the utmost purity of his life, holy and irreprehensible in the eyes of God and of men.

St. Francis de Sales: How exalted in this virtue of virginity must Joseph have been who was destined by the Eternal Father to be the companion in virginity of Mary! Both had made a vow to preserve virginity for their entire lives, and it was the Will of God to join them in the bond of a holy marriage...

Sacraments & Services

Baptism: Parents may request the baptism of their infants at least two months prior to the anticipated date of baptism. The baptism of infants at the Cathedral is ordinarily celebrated on Sundays at 12:00 noon. To request a baptism, please call 782-0322. Baptism of infants at St. James the Less on Sundays at 10:00 am. A class for parents is required.

Marriage: Couples who want to request the celebration of the Sacrament of Marriage should contact the rector/pastor at the time of formal engagement or at least six months prior to the anticipated date of marriage. In the case of a mixed marriage, the

This was not a common practice; however, Jesus was not a common man, so why should we doubt His parents' uncommon vows? Joseph and Mary were Jews, and yes, it was unusual to make vows of virginity in their culture, but it is the same in our own culture today! If someone tells you they have made a vow of virginity, would you doubt them? You may doubt them, you may not, but you would be inclined to ask them why they say this. Why would anyone want to live without sex!? Because sex, in its proper context of "making love," is one of life's most beautiful treasures, and some people, impelled to serve God in a unique way, choose to offer it to the Lord instead of to themselves. Joseph gave one of the most beautiful gifts he could offer to God. Virginity in our culture is seen as prudishness and "old school," and some people lie to say that they are not virgins! It is seen as something to lose as early as possible and to brag about losing – more notably among young men. If it were the other way around and virginity was seen as something to cherish, this perpetual virginity of Joseph would not seem so strange.

Pope St. John Paul II: In the Liturgy, Mary is celebrated as "united to Joseph, the just man, by a bond of marital and virginal love." There are really two kinds of love here, both of which together represent the mystery of the Church - virgin and spouse - as symbolized in the marriage of Mary and Joseph. "Virginity or celibacy for the sake of the Kingdom of God not only does not contradict the dignity of marriage but presupposes and confirms it. Marriage and virginity are two ways of expressing and living the one mystery of the Covenant of God with his people," the Covenant which is a communion of love between God and human beings.

The Bible gives us examples of people who gave their gift of virginity to God and were not ashamed of people knowing it. They were seen as holy, not because sex is bad and they were abstaining from it, but because they saw this God-given gift as being so wonderful and they wanted to offer it and themselves wholly to God. It is a selfless act of love!

Revelation 14:1, 14:4 And I saw, and behold, the Lamb was standing upon Mount Zion, and with Him a hundred and forty-four thousand having his name and the name of his Father written on their foreheads... These are they who were not known with women; for they are virgins.

non-Catholic party must arrange to receive instructions about the Catholic faith prior to the celebration of the wedding. Weddings are not ordinarily celebrated during Lent.

Anointing of the Sick: Those who are seriously ill or have been sick for a long period of time should receive the Sacrament of the Sick and Holy Communion. Please call YOUR parish office to make arrangements.

Visitation of the Sick: If you become homebound because of illness and would like to be visited, please call the Cathedral parish office.
