For more information and to order a book, call Mari at 518-7655 by Sunday, March 22.

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOSEPH

Gentlemen, just as a farmer's fields need to be plowed, disked, harrowed and spring toothed for a bountiful harvest, so too, do our spiritual lives require this fine attention, before planting wholesome seeds to realize an overflowing yield. Each and every day should be a day of conscientiously cultivating proper attitudes, behaviours, habits and virtues, which mirror those of God. However, Holy Mother Church in Her prudence and wisdom sets aside these 40 days of Lent, leading up to Easter, to really get serious and get down to the nitty gritty, as it were, of eradicating those uncomely attributes and all of our sins which separate us from God. Just as we are told in Sacred Scripture, (Isaiah 55:6-7). Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.

MASS INTENTIONS

Mass intentions are readily available in the 2020 calendar year. If you would like to have a Mass offered for a loved one, living or deceased, or for a special intention, please contact the Rectory Office to schedule your Mass intentions.

With First Communion, Confirmation and Graduation around the corner, this may be a great time to have a Mass offered for these individuals as they celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation and their academic achievements.

EUCHRE NIGHT - WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25

Like to play Euchre, want to learn how? Cathedral Parish is hosting a Euchre night where you will meet new people, improve your skill and have some fun. Open to all players. No need to bring a partner - we will match you up. If you haven't played before, come and learn; you'll get hooked! Cathedral Gathering Space. Doors open at 6:30 pm. Cards start as tables fill up.

UNPLANNED

You are invited to watch the powerfully prolife film "Unplanned". This film is based off the true story of Abby Johnson, a woman who formerly was advancing her career rapidly at Planned Parenthood and is now one of the countries leading prolife activists. Come see her amazing transformation and the true power of prayer. The film will be shown on Saturday, March 28th, at 5:30pm at St. Leo's Parish Hall, 210 West Hamlin Street, West Salem. Free will donations will be given to prolife Wisconsin. The film is rated R but is appropriate for roughly high school age and up. Any questions, please contact Brook White, 799-3424.

How God Guides Us

Relationship comes first!

Our high school students in the Diocese have been telling us through surveys and interviews over the last several years that they want to know how God guides them in everyday life. This is radically important for them, and for each one of us.

It is essential to know that God truly desires to lead us. We can be sure of this because God has revealed to us in the Scriptures that He will guide us in all things. Here are some Bible passages that point to this fact:

- “He guides me in right paths for His name’s sake” (Psalm 23: 3).
- “I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with My loving eye on you” (Psalm 32:8).
- “Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to Him, and He will make your paths known” (Proverbs 3:5-6).
- “If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you” (James 1:5).
- “And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” (Luke 11:9).

God offers us guidance in different ways. However, there is something that is foundational to our receiving it. The key is our relationship with God – knowing the Guide Himself. Each of us must come to understand, through a special grace given by God, that we are loved deeply and uniquely by Him. Saint John says: “We love because God first loved us” (1 John 4:19). Whether we were blessed to realize this early in life, or whether we come to understand it later on, it profoundly affects a person to realize that I’m in this world because I’m loved – that I’ve been known and loved from all eternity – that I’ve been given life at a certain time, in a certain place and within a certain set of circumstances. I’ve also been given the choice to follow the Lord or reject Him.

In order to receive this grace of a deeper experience of God’s personal love, we need to ask for it. Our Lord will answer this prayer, and we need never stop asking for more of it - for more of Him. When we know the truth of how much God loves us and that He wants to guide us, everything changes: we become more peaceful, confident and trusting. As we grow in our relationship with Jesus, we become more aware of His guidance. And, as we follow His guidance, we will grow deeper in our trust and relationship with Him.

Guidance is a gift from God and our part is to dispose ourselves to receive it. The proper disposition involves being open, available and entails looking for and being ready to receive the gift of guidance when God gives it.

God desires what is best for us, even better than what we want for ourselves, or that anyone else wants for us. Based on this trust, we want to make ourselves available to what God desires. Even when this includes a certain amount of difficulty or suffering, God’s guidance is always accompanied by a peace and joy deep down in our heart. He promised us that everything will work out together for good, in the end. (See Romans 8:28). If you would like to read two modern-day true stories of God’s very real and practical guidance, they can be accessed at diolc.org/deeper, then click on Stories for Bulletin Insert 1.

How does one go about seeking guidance from God? How do we begin to learn to listen for God’s guidance? How can we tell if we’re just “talking to ourselves” or if we’re listening to God? These questions will be answered in a series of bulletin inserts to follow, which will provide specific principles for understanding how God guides us and how to practice making personal application in our everyday life. There is nothing more exciting than knowing that God has a special path for us and that we can come to know the peace and joy that comes in following this adventure with Him!
