Church Envelopes

After receiving several inquiries regarding "missing" church tithing envelopes, we reviewed our parishioner database and noticed that several of you had indicated to us, at some point in time, that you would like to receive tithing envelopes, but have not been receiving them. We went through and have now ordered tithing envelopes for anyone who had signed up for envelopes in the past. We apologize for this oversight.

Year End Statements

Just a reminder that any contributions made to the Christ Our Cornerstone Campaign for the Steeple will not be included on your regular tithing statement. A separate statement will be mailed out to you from the Diocese for your contribution.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A PARISHIONER?

We welcome all new parishioners into our parish family. To register, contact the Parish office at 782-0322, or go on line to our home page or fill out the blue card in the Cathedral Atrium.

Why is It Important to Marry within the Church?

This is a very important question which deserves a thoughtful answer. We know that people can get married just about anywhere in any venue. Is this an option for Catholics? No. Also, getting married within “the Church” needs to be understood as being married in the Catholic Church before a priest or deacon. It doesn’t mean getting married in any church building or denomination. Why is this so important? [Let it be noted here that there are exceptions for which permissions and dispensations can be granted.]

Marriage as a Sacrament reflects and constitutes Jesus’ unity with His Bride, the Church which is His Body on earth in space and time. Marriage is a vital, deeper participation in that reality. Since each marriage constructs the Body of Christ, amplifies it and makes it present we consider marriage as a “cell” within that Body. So important is marriage, that in both civil and church law, it is a juridic reality because it is so vitally important to the social construct of the society and the Church, albeit with quite divergent underpinnings and expressions. The Church’s position is not only from the point of view as a natural institution (which not even the flood of Noah’s day could wash away) but is heightened and brought to a higher level due to Divine Revelation (Scripture and Tradition), lifting it up to a participation in the life of the Trinity. This is why marriage cannot be redefined. Marriage ipso facto is between one man and one woman because it participates in the Divine Life and as a Sacrament becomes a conduit by which God’s Divine Life flows into the world, beginning with spouses, the family and radiating outward from there. If you listen carefully to the words at a Catholic wedding, it’s all about that!

Since the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony constructs the Body of Christ as an individual cell within that living organism, the Church, it is necessary, therefore, that marriage occur within that very Body, the Church. To marry outside of the Church is a choice to step outside (to a degree) of the bonds of Communion with that Body the Church. For a Roman Catholic, it is in the spiritual DNA of marriage that it belongs within the body. Imagine taking a cell outside of the body and expecting it to live as it was intended to live within the body. There is a difference—here, sacramentally touching upon Divinity and Eternity. There’s a lot at stake for all of us because the whole society and the Body of Christ benefit from the tremendous gift of marriage that it is!

Receiving Holy Communion is an act that reaffirms marriage. Here, you can’t have one without the other. Marriage and Eucharist are both inter-related “Communion”. Therefore, it is not appropriate to receive communion if one is married outside of communion with the Church. To that end, however, those marriages can for the most part (99% of the time!) be brought into that full sacramental communion with the Church. All it takes is openness, determination, a phone call or an email and we’re on our way! Trust me, it’s worth it: to you, to God and the Church. It is with love and compassion that this journey can be walked together. St. Joseph the Workman, Pray for us!

M. Miller

SACRAMENTS & SERVICES

Marriage

Couples requesting the celebration of the Sacrament of Marriage should contact the rector at the time of formal engagement or at least six months prior to the anticipated date of marriage and actively participate in the faith (Sunday worship) as a registered member of a parish. Weddings are not celebrated during Lent.

Cathedral Prayer Chain

Notice to all Cathedral Parishioners. The parish has a prayer chain that you may request prayer to be said and pray for the needs of others. Send your prayer requests to Mari at <https://cathedralsjworkman.org/prayer-request/>.

Wills & Estates

As you prayerfully execute your will or do estate planning, please consider keeping the Cathedral of St. Joseph the Workman in mind. The most common and simplest way to include the parish in your last wishes is to include a bequest in your will or trust.

Baptism

Parents may request the baptism of their infants at least two months prior to the anticipated date of baptism. To request baptism, please call 782-0322.

Hospital Visits & Visitation of the Sick:

To secure a priest for unplanned or emergency admissions to a local hospital, it is vitally important that the patient, if possible, or a family member and/or friends contact the hospital pastoral care department to have an on call priest administer the sacraments. The on call priest is considered part of the pastoral team and does not count toward the “one visitor per day” rule (Gundersen).

If you become homebound because of illness or due to a post hospital stay and would like to be visited; or those who are seriously ill or have been sick for a long period of time should receive the Sacrament of the Sick and Holy Communion. Those with imminent preplanned hospital procedures should call the parish office to make arrangements for anointing. To the greatest extent possible one should be anointed apart from a hospital stay since there are such severe visiting restrictions.

Catholic Schools Week

Catholic Schools Week starts Sunday, January 31, 2021. Please take time to celebrate with the Catholic School students and their families in our diocese, and please pray for the continued success of our Catholic Schools. As you celebrate in our parish and schools, please tag your social media posts with the hashtag #CSWDIOLC21 so we can share your excitement! To watch Bishop Callahan's Catholic Schools Week Video visit: <https://youtu.be/IOOn3KRRgQFA>

U.S. Bishops' Statement on Ethics of COVID-19 Vaccines

There are three COVID-19 vaccines that are either currently available (right now only for "emergency use"), or likely to be available in the coming months. They are from Pfizer, Moderna, and AstraZeneca. Neither Pfizer nor Moderna used morally compromised cell lines in producing the vaccine. A confirmatory test, however, employing the commonly used, but morally compromised HEK293 cell line (from kidney cells taken from an aborted child in the Netherlands in 1972) was performed on both vaccines. Thus, while neither vaccine is completely free from any connection to morally compromised cell lines, in this case the connection is very remote from the initial evil of the abortion. The AstraZeneca vaccine is more morally compromised. The HEK293 cell line was used in the design, development, and production stages of that vaccine, as well as for confirmatory testing. Where possible, then, the Pfizer and Moderna vaccines are to be used instead. Where that is not possible or would mean significant delay, the AstraZeneca vaccine may be used, in the same way that the Rubella vaccine is used because there is no alternative. To read the Bishops' full statement on the vaccines, visit: diolc.org/respect-life and click on the tab for "COVID Vaccines –Ethics."

"We have received baptism, entrance into the Church, and the honor of being called Christians. Yet what good will this do us if we are Christians in name only and not in fact?"

– St. Andrew Kim Taegon

Come Follow Me!

When Peter encountered Jesus for the first time, he was busy doing his daily work, fishing. He was minding his own business, when Jesus approached him and asked him to put his nets out into the deep water for a catch. Although hesitant, he did as Jesus asked him and caught an over-abundance of fish! When they arrived back on shore, Jesus said to Peter, "Come, follow me..." and Peter did. In just the same way, the Lord continues to work in our world today, approaching us in our normal, daily lives and inviting us to consider following Him. Have you ever considered following the Lord as a priest, like Peter? Do you know of a young man who you think the Lord may be calling to be a priest? Perhaps this is the Lord's invitation to follow Him. To begin the conversation or to inquire about what it means to be a priest, contact: Fr. Nate Kuhn, Director of Vocational Recruitment-Diocese of La Crosse, 3710 East Ave. S., La Crosse, WI 54602; or phone: 608.791.2667.

Diaconate Discernment Retreat

Are you a man at least 30 years of age who feels a yearning to give yourself more radically to the service of God and the Church – preaching the Gospel, serving those in need, assisting at the altar? If you think God may be calling you to be a deacon, talk to your pastor about attending the Diaconate Discernment Retreat at St. Mary's Church in Altoona on February 27, 2021. Then contact Deacon Bryan Hilts, Director of the Office for the Diaconate at bhilts@diolc.org. A new deacon formation class will begin in the fall of 2021 and attendance at the Discernment Retreat is a prerequisite.
